

The ECK Masters' Love for You!

1. Sing HU, and imagine stepping onto a highway of silvery stars with the MAHANTA. Then follow the Master, and see where he takes you!
2. Try the spiritual exercise next to Kata Daki's picture to learn the secret of love.
3. Make two ornaments by cutting around the outside of the images below and gluing the backs of them together.
4. Punch a hole at the top, and lace string, yarn, or ribbon through the hole.
5. Hang the ornaments in a special place in your home to remind you of the ECK Masters' love for you.

Would you like to learn the secret of love? Note these words from The Shariyat-Ki-Sugmad, Book One: "Love does not come to those who seek it, but to those who give love." Shut your eyes in quiet contemplation. Then sing the word seva (see-VAH), a spiritual word that means a service of love. Ask Kata Daki to show how to give love to others. You'll think of ways you've never imagined. She may begin by reminding you of a time you received divine love when you were once in need too.
