

ECK BOOKS

I've Read This Year

Throughout the year, as you read ECK books and publications, write the title of each one you finish on one of the books below. You can include each issue of the Letter of Light, the Illustrated ECK Parables, your ECK youth discourses, the ECK Wisdom series books, the ECK Soul Adventure eBooklets, and any other ECK book that lights up for you!

A hand-drawn illustration of a three-shelf bookshelf. The shelves are filled with light blue books of various sizes and orientations. On the top shelf, there is a small green cactus with pink flowers on the left, and a stack of three books in the center. The bottom shelf has a stack of four books on the left and a stack of five books on the right. The middle shelf is filled with books standing upright. The entire bookshelf is enclosed in a dark blue border.

What is your favorite thing you learned?
