

Who's Who?

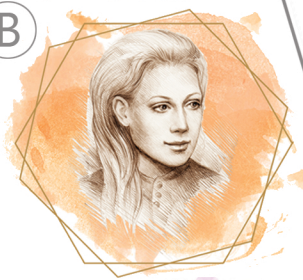

Part 1

The ECK Masters are an unbroken line of spiritual teachers who have passed on the teachings of ECK since the beginning of time. They help the current MAHANTA, the Living ECK Master share the Light and Sound of God with those who are ready. Read about some of the ECK Masters below, and draw lines from their pictures to each one's name and description.

1

Shamus-i-Tabriz

He served as the MAHANTA, the Living ECK Master during the thirteenth century, in Persia. He was the spiritual teacher of the poet Jalal ad-Din ar-Rumi. Today, he serves as guardian of the Shariyat-Ki-SUGMAD in the Temple of Sakapori on the Causal Plane. You might recognize him by his short beard or wide-brimmed hat.

2

Rami Nuri

He serves as guardian of the Shariyat-Ki-SUGMAD at the House of Moksha, a Temple of Golden Wisdom located in the city of Retz on Venus. This spiritual site is a supraphysical one, which means it exists above the normal range of human perception and is cloaked to human eyes because of its high vibrations. Noble looking, he has a white beard, and the letter M appears on his forehead.

3

Kata Daki

A female ECK Master in the Ancient Order of the VAIRAGI Adepts. Like other ECK Masters, she serves the SUGMAD by helping one find the MAHANTA, the Living ECK Master. She especially enjoys helping people get back on their feet during hardship.

4

Gopal Das

He was the MAHANTA, the Living ECK Master in Egypt around 3000 BC, when the pharaohs were building pyramids at Saqqara. He inspired the Egyptian book of dreams, one of the oldest books known to humankind. He now teaches at the Temple of Asklepos on the Astral Plane, where he is guardian of the fourth section of the Shariyat-Ki-SUGMAD. He has long golden hair and gentle eyes.

5

Sri Harold Klemp

The current spiritual leader of ECKANKAR; the MAHANTA, the Living ECK Master. He is both an outer and inner spiritual teacher. The outer teachings include his talks, books, and discourses. His inner teachings are the most important part of the path of ECKANKAR, where he teaches through dreams, Soul Travel, and inner nudges. He is also guardian of the Temple of ECK in Chanhassen, Minnesota. His spiritual name is Wah Z, and you can always call on him for help.
